May 23, 1927

Hon P.P.O'Brien
Postmaster
Los Angeles, Cal.

My dear Mr. O'Brien:

March 30th, last I personally deposited in the package box at the corner of Ave. 43 and Pasadena Ave. a copy of my "Spanish Songs of Old California", in the same heavy Columbian Clasp No.98, envelope, in which I have mailed so many thousand copies of this book in the last three years. It was addressed to L.S.Ayres & Co., Indianapolis, Ind.; and was fully prepaid with three 2¢ stamps.

These people now complain to Baker & Taylor Co., New York through whom they ordered, that they have never received the book; and the B & T Co., write me to please trace the matter, as they have already paid me for the shipment.

May I ask you to set the proper machinery in motion to hunt up this Lost Child?

With high regard

Always Sincerely Yours,

L/C